

Any restructuring of any type is something that we will take a strong stand against. If certain people want this type of church structure, let them go and do their own thing. It is along same lines as if a group wants to leave a church, then they are on their own. They should not expect anything (monies, buildings, leadership, etc.) from the church they leave or the denomination with which they were affiliated.

Jonesboro Friends Monthly Meeting thus supports Resolution B.
